ANSWER:

Watch the Video on this FAQ: EB-1C for functional managers - overseas team inclusion [2]

Video Transcript

There are two kinds of managers or executives - somebody who manages a function an essential and critical function of the corporation even though they don't manage any staff they would be considered a manager. No corporation can survive without a good pricing structure. It is a critical function of an organisation in the services business. There is another kind of manager which is a people manager, so if you are managing a team of twenty five software engineers they have to be professional employees. More... [2]
