Lawsuit to freeze all immigration law deadlines <sup>[1]</sup>

Submitted by Rajiv S. Khanna on Apr 3rd 2020

Our association, AILA, has filed a lawsuit against the USCIS today requesting the court to order the USCIS to freeze all immigration deadlines for:

- ? Initial applications
- ? Responses to all Requests for Evidence or other responses due on or after March 1, 2020
- ? Requests for extension of status, maintenance of status
- ? Reprieve from any expiration of status or employment authorization;
- ? Maintaining the status quo for purposes of eligibility for protection from removal, work authorization, and immigration benefits from the date the President declared that a national emergency began on March 1, 2020, until 90 days after the emergency officially ends.

Here is a detailed screen recording on the Complaint. I think our chances of success are very, very good.
