Visas for same-sex partners from countries where such marriage is not allowed

Visas for same-sex partners from countries where such marriage is not allowed ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Feb 12th 2020

My partner is a teacher and was granted a J-1 visa on September 25, 2019. We've been together under one roof for 5 years and undergone the rite of Holy Union since same-sex marriage is not honored in the Philippines. I would like to seek advice on the best possible way on how to go to the US. Should I still push through with the J-2 visa application or as a tourist or visitor?
