Submitted by Chief Editor on Jul 24th 2020

USCIS has updated the USCIS Policy Manual ^[2] with clarifying guidance on the deployment of investment capital under the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program. It addresses the deployment of capital by a new commercial enterprise before jobs have been created. It also further explains the deployment of capital after an immigrant investor meets the program's job creation requirements.

More information about the EB-5 visa program is available on the EB-5 Immigrant Investment Program ^[3] webpage.
