My sister's F4 application was approved 1997 and she is due to go for her interview any day. My question is - I was recently made aware that although at the time the application was made and approved her 2 kids were under 21, but now 12yrs later they are both over 21. What is the next step to take. I was told she has to petition them once she is in US and the priority date will be from 1997. Is that true? How does that work?

ANSWER:

Child Status Protection Act <http://www.immigration.com/greencard/409/child-status-protection-act-cspa> [2]

Contact the consulate for their assessment.
