PERM classification EB2

PERM classification EB2 [1]

Submitted by Editor on Jan 27th 2010

I am technology professional with nearly 9 years of work experience. I am currently working as a software consultant in a trading firm in the US and will be graduating from a part time MBA program (concentrations in Finance) this december. If I plan to apply for PERM next year, will I be eligible to apply under EB-2 US Masters degree, given that my MBA in finance will help in understanding complex financial principles and writing algorithms that support day to day trading? In this case, will my previous experience be evaluated?

ANSWER:

As long as the job requires a Master's degree and you have earned that degree by the time you file your PERM, you should be able to get EB-2.
