Request Number in the visa appointment site - Explanation from State Department

Request Number in the visa appointment site - Explanation from State Department ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Nov 5th 2012

When using the new visa appointment site, what should my client list in the mandatory field that asks for the "Request Number"?

ANSWER:

When a visa applicant sets up a user account in the appointment system, an 8-digit identifying number is assigned to the applicant. When logged into the appointment system, this "Request Number" appears in white against a red background in the upper right hand corner of the screen in parentheses after the applicant's e-mail address:
