Green Card for Nurses

Green Card for Nurses <sup>[1]</sup>

Submitted by Chief Editor on Oct 4th 2013

A registered nurse who is coming to the United States to perform labor in covered health care occupations (other than as a physician) and wishes to apply for Immigrant Visa (Permanent Resident Status) is required to have the following:

- Credentials showing that the applicant is a Registered Nurse licensed to practice in his/her country;
- Certification from a U.S. commission that the nurse meets VisaScreen educational, licensure, and English language proficiency requirements or nurse licensure requirements of the U.S. state where the nurse will work; and
- A job offer from a financially capable U.S health care facility willing to file an Immigrant Visa petition with USCIS on behalf of the nurse;
