USCIS Expedite Criteria ^[1]

Submitted by Rajiv S. Khanna on Jun 13th 2008

This issue has come up several times. Here is what USCIS says:

USCIS Considerations to expedite Cases

All expedite requests are reviewed on a case-by-case basis, and are granted at the discretion of the Director. The criteria are as follows:

- * Severe financial loss to company or individual
- * Extreme emergent situation
- * Humanitarian situation
- * Nonprofit status of requesting organization in furtherance of the cultural and social interests of the United States
- * Department of Defense of National Interest Situation (Note: Request must come from official United States Government entity and state that delay will be detrimental to our Government)
- * USCIS error
- * Compelling interest of USCIS

If your case is at a local office at the time you need to make your emergency request, please go to the local office in person to make your request. Please be sure to take all supporting documentation with you.

If your case is at one of our Service Centers or the National Benefits Center, please call customer service at 1-800-375-5283 to receive further instructions on where and how to send your request.
