Request Number in the visa appointment site -- Explanation from State Department

Request Number in the visa appointment site -- Explanation from State Department ^[1]

Submitted by Rajiv S. Khanna on Nov 1st 2012

Q: When using the new visa appointment site, what should my client list in the mandatory field that asks for the "Request Number"?

A: When a visa applicant sets up a user account in the appointment system, an 8-digit identifying number is assigned to the applicant. When logged into the appointment system, this "Request Number" appears in white against a red background in the upper right hand corner of the screen in parentheses after the applicant's e-mail address:
