H-1B Filing twice the numbers last year so far

H-1B Filing twice the numbers last year so far ^[1]

Submitted by Rajiv S. Khanna on Apr 6th 2012

USCIS has indicated that 22,323 cap-subject H-1B petitions had been received as of April 4, 2012. Approximately one quarter (1/4) of these cases are for advanced degrees. According to USCIS, the number of filings received is almost double the number of filings received by USCIS during the same time last year. It would appear that H-1B numbers are likely to get exhausted a lot earlier than last year.
