EB2 - National Interest Waiver

EB2 - National Interest Waiver ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Jan 1st 2002

We won this case as the applicant was noted to be a critical component to the success of various projects and had a very large impact on the research program. Referees described this applicant's talents to be rare and difficult to replace by U.S. workers. Her original and pioneering research made her uniquely qualified to further this intrinsically important research which greatly effected the nation as a whole.
